THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

The two disciples returned to Jerusalem to tell the others of their encounter on the road to Emmaus and how they recognized Jesus in the breaking of the bread.

As they were talking about the event, Jesus appeared among them and greeted them. "Peace be with you." The followers were overcome with terror and thought they were seeing a ghost! "Look at my hands and my feet; see that it is I myself. Touch me and see; for a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have." He showed them his wounds.

The followers were full of joy but still in disbelief. Jesus explained to the disciples that everything written in the Scriptures, the prophets and the psalms must be fulfilled.

Then they began to understand, "Thus it is written, that the Christ is to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day, and that repentance and forgiveness of sins is to be proclaimed in the name of all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things."

In these uncertain times, Jesus' words are more prophetic than ever. "Why are you frightened and why do doubts arise in your hearts?" Let us put our trust and faith in God and know that he is very much alive in the breaking of the bread.

* * *

Emmaus actually represents every place: the road that leads there is the road every Christian, every person, takes. The Risen Jesus makes himself our travelling companion as we go on our way, to rekindle the warmth of faith and hope in our hearts and to break the bread of eternal life. In the disciples' conversation with the unknown wayfarer the words the evangelist Luke puts in the mouth of one of them are striking: "We had hoped..." (Lk 24: 21). This verb in the past tense tells all: we believed, we followed, we hoped..., but now everything is over. Even Jesus of Nazareth, who had shown himself in his words and actions to be a powerful prophet, has failed, and we are left disappointed. This drama of the disciples of Emmaus appears like a reflection of the situation of many Christians of our time: it seems that the hope of faith has failed. Faith itself enters a crisis because of negative experiences that make us feel abandoned and betrayed even by the Lord. But this road to Emmaus on which we walk can become the way of a purification and maturation of our belief in God. Also today we can enter into dialogue with Jesus, listening to his Word. Today too he breaks bread for us and gives himself as our Bread. And so the meeting with the Risen Christ that is possible even today gives us a deeper and more authentic faith tempered, so to speak, by the fire of the Paschal Event; a faith that is robust because it is nourished not by human ideas but by the Word of God and by his Real Presence in the Eucharist.
