(Introduction to the Catholic Faith)

Assumption/Resurrection Parish is delighted to let our parishioners know of a very exciting, pro-life initiative. “Gianna Centre Public Market” at 9040 – 95 Ave will open on July 8th (weather permitting) from 10:00am – 3:00pm and weekly throughout the summer months.

This market will offer a selection of fresh produce, baked goods and treats for the entire family. Also for sale will be artwork, floral arrangements, knitted items and clothing etc. Profits will benefit the mothers who will also be gaining valuable work and people skills.

Gianna Centre greatly appreciates the support of our parishioners and would encourage anyone wishing to volunteer their time and/or talents to contact the Gianna Centre if they can assist.

Saint Mary Magdalene

July 22

Except for the mother of Jesus, few women are more honored in the Bible than Mary Magdalene. Yet she could well be the patron of the slandered, since there has been a persistent legend in the Church that she is the unnamed sinful woman who anointed the feet of Jesus in Luke 7:36-50.

Most Scripture scholars today point out that there is no scriptural basis for confusing the two women. Mary Magdalene, that is, “of Magdala,” was the one from whom Christ cast out “seven demons” Luke 8:2—an indication at the worst, of extreme demonic possession or possibly, severe illness.

In the New Catholic Commentary, Father Wilfrid J.

Harrington, O.P., says that “seven demons” “does not mean that Mary had lived an immoral life—a conclusion reached only by means of a mistaken identification with the anonymous woman of Luke 7:36.”

Mary Magdalene was one of the many “who were assisting them [Jesus and the Twelve] out of their means.” She was one of those who stood by the cross of Jesus with his mother. And, of all the “official” witnesses who might have been chosen for the first awareness of the Resurrection, she was the one to whom that privilege was given.

Reflection

Mary Magdalene has been a victim of mistaken identity for almost 20 centuries. Yet she would no doubt insist that it makes no difference. We are all sinners in need of the saving power of God, whether our sins have been lurid or not. More importantly, we are all “unofficial” witnesses of the Resurrection. Mary Magdalene is the patron saint of penitents.
