Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

(feast on 15 August)

“We believe that Jesus died and rose again. Through Jesus, God will bring to life those who have fallen asleep.”

1 Thessalonians 4, 14

A long tradition supports our belief that Mary, the mother of Jesus was assumed body and soul into heaven. God rewarded her for faithfully fulfilling her role as the Mother of Jesus. And so, she was brought to life after falling asleep in death. She was taken up into heaven.

We see her as a sign of what our future holds. In the words of the church’s liturgy, she brings “hope and comfort for your people on their pilgrim way.”

Pray for us, O holy Mother of God, that we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

The Transfiguration of the Lord

(feast on August 6th)

On the way to Jerusalem where Jesus would be crucified, he told the disciples of his impending suffering and death. They were deeply saddened. "Jesus took Peter, James, and John with him and went up a mountain to pray. While he was praying, his face changed in appearance, and his clothes became dazzling white." Luke 9:28-29

Even now, God's glory shines in the darkest places of our lives, if we hold them up to the light of faith. Even now, we are given intimations, brief encounters, transfigurations of a lesser kind, as we confront the mystery of suffering. It is not God's will that the Cross burden us too much. Even now, Jesus reveals his glory to us as we go through life, that we not lose heart.
