10th Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading Genesis 3:9-15: God confronts Adam and Eve after they eat from the forbidden tree. They blame each other and the serpent, who is then cursed by God.

Responsorial Psalm Psalm 130: I cry out to You, Lord, from the depths of my despair, seeking Your mercy and redemption, trusting in Your forgiveness and promise to deliver me from all my sins.

Second Reading 2 Corinthians 4:13-5:1: We speak from faith, confident that as God raised Jesus, He will also raise us. Despite physical decline, our spirits renew, focusing on eternal, unseen glory.

Gospel Mark 3:20-35: Jesus teaches that His true family includes those who do God's will, despite accusations from scribes and concerns from His biological family. He emphasizes unity and the power of faith over division.
