Sunday - November 1, 2026 All Saints Day

All Saints Day celebrates all the saints, both known and unknown. It reminds us of people who followed Jesus and lived good lives. We thank God for their example and their prayers. Catholics go to Mass on this day. It is a joyful day that points to hope and reminds us that heaven is our goal.

This day also reminds us that we are all called to be saints. The Church teaches that we are united with the saints in heaven. They pray for us and walk with us. All Saints Day encourages us to live with faith, kindness, and trust in God each day.

Approaching the Word: A Journey into Scripture

Step into the living Word of God with a heart ready to listen, a mind eager to understand, and a soul longing for union with Christ. In this series, you will learn how to approach the Bible not merely as a text to be studied, but as a sacred encounter — the voice of the Holy Spirit speaking through the inspired words of Scripture.

Rooted in Christian tradition, this journey will guide you to read and rest in the Word. You will reflect on the theme of waiting for God and listen for where and how you are called to anticipate the Lord in your own life.

Whether you are new to the Bible or seeking to deepen your practice, this series will help you move from reading about God to truly hearing Him — so that His Word may take root in you and bear fruit for eternal life.

Jackson O'Brien - Jackson's post-secondary journey has been eclectic. He has studied at seven different colleges and universities, earning degrees from a few, including Alberta Bible College (BTh), The King's University (BA, BEd), and Wycliffe College at the University of Toronto (MA). Jackson is married and has two young kids. In addition to spending time with his family, Jackson enjoys playing basketball, attempting to understand the works of Dallas Willard, and welcoming people into his home to share life together.
